Practice Advisory
Trust Accounts and Trust Account Interest

Section 57(2) of the Legal Profession Act requires members who have one or more trust accounts in the NWT to ensure that interest on each account is remitted to the NWT Law Foundation semiannually. Documents that provide further information and a letter template that members can use to instruct the bank to remit the interest to the Law Foundation are below.

In addition prior to opening a trust account in the NWT, Rule 114 requires that a member obtain permission from the Law Society of maintain a trust account. The form to apply to open a trust account is here.

The member shall notify the Law Society of the institution(s) where the member maintains a trust account(s), along with the account number.

If you previously signed an undertaking with the Law Society that you did not maintain a trust account and want to open a trust account in the NWT, you must complete this form, and provide the Law Society with the bank and account information for the trust account.
