

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Applicants

RE: Application for Membership in the Northwest Territories Bar

Attached is a copy of Rule 40 of the Rules of the Law Society and the portion of the Legal Profession Act, which deals with membership.

Here is a link to the Applications Page on our Website. Create an account to begin the application process. You will be guided through the steps to apply.

You will be required to upload the following documents during the application process:

1. Certificate of Indemnity/Insurance, if applicable;
2. Two letters of good character;
3. Certificate(s) of Standing from each Law Society of which the Applicant is a member. Each Certificate of Standing must be dated not earlier than forty-five days prior to receipt of the application by the Law Society;
4. Notarized copy of photo identification, such as a driver's license or passport;

The applicable fees for membership are:

Application fee	$205.00
Admission fee	$230.00
Annual fee	$1230.00 (Annual fees are pro-rated according to Rule 68 and its subrules.)
	$1665
GST (5%)	$83.25
TOTAL:	$1748.25

Please note:

Referees giving the letters of good character must state:

- which Law Society in Canada they belong to and that they are in good standing in that Society;
- the capacity in which the referee knows the Applicant;
- how long the referee has known the Applicant;
- why the referee is of the view that the Applicant is of good character;
- a telephone number and email address where the referee can be contacted, if necessary.

If you are going to be resident in the Northwest Territories and be in private practice, you may need to apply to be a responsible lawyer. Please see here for information on setting up private practice in the NWT.

Letters of good character must not be from one of the Applicant's current partners or associates, or any of the Applicant's family members. Referees must be members of the same Law Society that the applicant is applying from.

NOTE: To qualify under the Territorial Mobility Agreement, your certificate of standing must state: “is entitled/authorized to practice law in this jurisdiction”.

Upon receipt of your properly completed application, accompanying documentation and payment of fees, all documentation is referred to the Admissions Committee for review. If the Admissions Committee is satisfied, they will recommend to the Executive that your application be accepted.

Approval of an Application for Full Membership may take up to four weeks from the date that the Law Society receives a completed application. We recommend that the application be submitted well in advance of the date on which the Applicant wishes to appear in the Northwest Territories.

If your application for admission is approved by the Executive, you will be entitled to become a member of our Law Society. Please be aware, however, that before you can engage in the practice of law in the Northwest Territories, you will be required to take an Oath of Office before a Justice of the Supreme Court.

Applicants should be aware that the Rules of the Law Society of the NT provide that:

- (1) In determining whether an applicant under section 39, 40, 48 or 49 is of good character, the Executive is not bound by letters of character provided by the applicant but may make such inquiries and hold such hearings as it deems necessary or desirable under the circumstances.

Persons providing letters of character should be prepared to be contacted with respect to their letter if the need arises. Further, in the event the Executive receives information adverse to your character, you will be informed of the information and given a reasonable opportunity to respond.

In the event your application is refused, section 19 of the Legal Profession Act provides that:

“Where the Society refuses or neglects to admit a person as a member, that person may, on 10 days written notice to the Society, apply to the Supreme Court and, on due cause being shown, the Supreme Court may

- (a) make an order directing the Society to admit the person or*
- (b) make such other order as is warranted.”*

Relevant materials required to complete the Reading Requirements and Declaration are available online, on the Law Society Website¹, Department of Justice Website² and the website for NWT Courts³

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Qualifications for membership

18. (1) The following persons are qualified for admission to the Society:
- a) a person who immediately before April 1, 1978, was registered in the Barristers and Solicitors Register under the Legal Profession Ordinance, R.S.N.W.T. 1974, c.L-3, and every such person is a member of the Society;
 - b) subject to subsection 16(1), a person who,
 - i. has been duly called to the bar of a province or territory or has been admitted to practise as an attorney, advocate, barrister or solicitor in any superior court of a province or territory, and
 - ii. is of good character and of good standing in the law society of the province or territory of which he or she is an attorney, advocate, barrister or solicitor;
 - c) a person who,
 - i. has, subject to subsection (2), completed 12 months of continuous service in the Territories under articles as a student-at-law approved by the Executive to a barrister and solicitor and has taken a bar admission course and passed a bar admission examination, and
 - ii. is of good character, and
 - a. is a graduate of a law school approved by the Executive, or
 - b. has been duly called to the bar in a country that is a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations and has been actively engaged in the practice of law in that country for a period of not less than three years within the five years immediately before the date of his or her application and who has a legal education that, in the opinion of the Executive, is equivalent to graduation from a law school approved by the Executive.

Articles of student-at-law

- (2) Except as provided in subsection 17(2), the articles of a student-at-law referred to in subparagraph (1)(c)(i) shall be with a barrister and solicitor residing in the Territories
- a) who is in good standing;
 - b) who is and has been engaged in the practice of law for not less than five years of which not less than two years were spent in the Territories; and
 - c) whose practice affords reasonable opportunity for the instruction and training of the student-at-law in the general practice of the profession of a barrister and solicitor.

Entitlement to admission

- (3) Every person who
- a) produces evidence and testimonials satisfactory to the Executive that he or she is qualified under subsection (1), and
 - b) sends to the Secretary the admission fee fixed by the rules,
- is entitled to be admitted as a member of the Society.

Attorney
General

- (4) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, a person who is Attorney General of the Northwest Territories, if he or she is a barrister and solicitor, is entitled to be enrolled as a member of the Society without complying with this Act or any of the rules of the Society with respect to admission, examinations, payment of fees or otherwise, and on enrollment is entitled to practise at the Bar of Her Majesty's courts in the Territories.
- S.N.W.T. 2004, c.10, s.6.
